Dear Natalia,

Congratulations, you have successfully completed LWPI's Certified Professional Wedding and Event Planner Course. Your assignments and final evaluation have been reviewed and have received approval on the completeness and understanding of the wedding and social event industry.

Enclosed you will find your Certificate of Accomplishment; please display it appropriately as it is a symbol of your knowledge and expertise. We look forward to working with you as you embark on a new beginning to build your Wedding and Event Planning career.

Sincerely,

Cho Phillips

To Whom It May Concern:

Natalia is a graduate of Lovegevity's Wedding Planning Institute Certification Course for Professional Wedding and Event Planners. During her participation she has demonstrated the qualities of a true professional wedding planner through her attention to detail, creative acumen and examples of leadership within the class environment. Her demonstrated efforts to go beyond the expected results in research and assignment presentation is truly a sign of her passion for this industry.

I would, without hesitation, recommend Natalia Perfetto to manage, plan, design and execute any wedding or social event based on her outstanding background, qualifications, academic achievement and experience. She will be a valuable resource to any new bridal couple or social event project.

Sincerely,

Carolyn Calmes
Director of Certification
